Please briefly describe what experiences an intern in your district would receive: The intern will be assigned to his or her own school for 2 to 3 days per week all school year and complete roughly 10 week rotations at other buildings with direct field supervision. The intern will end the year having had experience at the preschool, elementary, middle, and high school levels. The internship year will also include exposure to target populations, such as students with diverse backgrounds and low incidence disabilities. Some time can be negotiated for areas of particular interest. The focus of work is primarily on the evaluation process but school psychologists also engage in academic and behavioral consultation. Counseling opportunities are limited but may be arranged.

Describe professional development and training opportunities at site. (Check all that apply): regularly scheduled psychologist group meetings/supervision/training (targeting all district school psychologists)

Will the supervisor(s) provide 2 hours of direct supervision for every 40 hours worked: Yes

How many hours do interns typically accumulate throughout the year: 1200

What other information should intern candidates know about your district or internship experience that is not listed here? Flagstaff Unified School District employs 11 full-time school psychologists. We are a moderately sized district of 10 elementary schools, 2 middle schools, two high schools, and 1 alternative middle/high school.

Are there at least two licensed doctoral psychologists on staff in the event that a doctoral candidate wishes to receive supervision consistent with a future pursuit of licensure: No

Do you require students to apply to the district ahead of time: Yes

If so please provide directions for students on where to apply (physical address/email address/website) and what portfolio materials to submit: Applicants are encouraged but not required to initiate an application with the district at <https://www.applitrack.com/fusd1/onlineapp/>

The internship position will be posted under the Exceptional Student Services Link.
