

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

International Mother Language Day recognizes the importance of languages, multilingualism, education, the advancement of inclusion, and the advancement of educational recovery due to the severe effects of COVID-19 on Indigenous populations.

Join AILDI at our booth on the University Mall for information and activities!

February 18th from 10 AM - 2 PM

Events will also be taking place at Worlds of Words: Center of Global Literacies and Literatures February 21st from 3 - 4 PM

<https://aildi.arizona.edu/>

<https://en.unesco.org/commemorations/motherlanguageday>