

THE RICHARD RUIZ SCHOLAR
IN RESIDENCE LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS
A CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF TWO DECADES OF STRUGGLE OVER THE POLITICS OF CURRICULUM

Virtual presentation by Dr. Angela Valenzuela and
Dr. Emilio Zamora from the University of Texas-Austin,
2023 Richard Ruiz Scholars-in-Residence

SATURDAY | 10AM
APRIL 22ND | MST

Drs. Valenzuela and Zamora will present the historical context of the events that led to the battle over Mexican American Studies in Arizona as well as discuss the social movements and politics of knowledge involved in this struggle over the politics of curriculum.

In addition to the lecture, the two scholars will work with students from the University of Arizona, the University of Guanajuato and other international universities during their month long summer residence. They will also make scholarly presentations to the greater Guanajuato community, work with local teachers and engage students and families at Resplandor International.
