RIO GRANDE WEAVING EVOLUTION

with master weavers Irvin and Lisa Trujillo

October 19 | 6:00 PM | AZ time

Register: statemuseum.arizona.edu/events

Master weavers Irvin and Lisa Trujillo create extraordinary contemporary tapestry pieces in the Rio Grande tradition and by pushing its boundaries. They will share a brief history of Rio Grande weaving from Spanish Colonial times through Mexican and American influence all the way to what today is proudly known as Chimayo weaving. The Trujillos have won many awards for their work and are owners of Centinela Traditional Arts, a tapestry gallery in Chimayo, New Mexico. Irvin Trujillo was named a National Heritage Fellow in 2007 by the National Endowment for the Arts.

Grades K-12 teachers can earn professional development hours for attending. Zoom pre-registration is required. Questions? contact: folk@arizona.edu.
